

MACS for MOMs TeleECHO™ Clinic

Specially designed for providers in maternal healthcare settings

Providing collaborative medical education through web-based didactic presentations and case-based learning

Join us every 2nd Tuesday of the month from 8 am to 9 am for presentations and discussions with Drs. Katrina Mark, Christopher Welsh, and Lorraine Milio.

To register: <https://bit.ly/36dsONS>

Who Should Participate?

- OB/GYNs, Certified Nurse Midwives, physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and physician assistants working in maternal healthcare
- Clinical directors of maternal practices
- Counselors and other staff in maternal healthcare

Benefits

- Monthly case-based learning sessions
- Consultation with experts and your peers on how to manage challenging cases
- Focus on patient-centered care, harm reduction and best practices
- Free CMEs/CEUs

2022 Spring/Summer Maternal Health Curriculum

September 13th	Treatment of OUD During Pregnancy presented by C. Welsh
October 11th	Cannabis Use in Pregnancy presented by K. Mark
November 8th	High-risk Pregnancies presented by L. Milio
December 13th	Birth Outcomes presented by K. Mark
January 10th	Co-Occurring Psychiatric Disorders by C. Welsh
February 14th	Harm Reduction During Pregnancy by S. Kattakuzhy, MD

1-855-337-MACS (6227)
macs.echo@som.umaryland.edu
www.macsformoms.org

