

MACS for MOMs ECHO™ Clinic

Providers in a Maternal Health Setting

Join our virtual learning community for continuous case-based discussions and didactic presentations linking addiction medicine and OB experts with maternal health providers.

Every 2nd Tuesday of the month, 8 – 9 am with Drs. Katrina Mark and Christopher Welsh.

For more information and to register: bit.ly/3xjHvN2

Who Should Participate?

- OBGYNs, certified nurse midwives, physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses & physician assistants working in maternal healthcare
- Clinical directors of maternal health practices
- Counselors and other staff in maternal healthcare

Benefits

- Monthly case-based learning sessions
- Consultation with experts and your peers on how to manage challenging cases
- Focus on patient-centered care, harm reduction and best practices
- Free CMEs/CEU credit

2023 Spring Cycle: Maternal Health Curriculum

March 14	Stigma presented by K.Mark
April 11	Stimulants and Benzodiazepines presented by C.Welsh
May 9	Cannabis Use and Pregnancy presented by K.Mark
June 13	Alcohol and Benzodiazepines C.Welsh
July 11	Policy and Regulatory Updates presented by C.Welsh

