The School of Medicine New Faculty Orientation Program will be held in Leadership Hall on November 1, 2018. Additional information will be forthcoming.

UMSOM eDisclose Web-Based Disclosure System
The School of Medicine will be introducing the UMSOM eDisclose Web-Based Disclosure System this Fall. The UMSOM eDisclose Web-Based Disclosure System will allow all School of Medicine faculty and staff to disclose any conflicts of interest, on an annual basis. Look for more detailed instructions in the near future.

CloudCME Learning Management System
The University of Maryland School of Medicine (UMSOM) CME Program is implementing a new CME learning management system called CloudCME. The CloudCME integration has begun and will be rolling out to users in early fall.

You will use CloudCME web portal to view and register for upcoming CME activities and Grand Rounds, complete activity evaluations, take pre/post-test and view and print your complete SOM.CME transcript in real-time. Additionally, you will be able to upload documentation from other events accredited by other CME providers.

The program also features an app for both iPhone and Android devices, which allows participants to view activity syllabi/presentation content, record attendance, complete evaluations and pre/post-tests, and view transcripts.
