FPI enjoys its close collaborative relationship with the SOM which is important to our patients. Our ongoing contributions to the SOM is a way to show our support and pride in our connection to providing research, patient care, and teaching the next generation of healthcare providers.

—William Tucker, Chief Corporate Officer

We at Gordon Feinblatt LLC recognize and applaud the great achievements attained by the University of Maryland School of Medicine in medical care, population health, and innovations in all aspects of life sciences and technology. The School of Medicine is a vital resource to our State and to the world at large; support of the School of Medicine must be our absolute priority.

—Abba David Poliakoff, Member of the Firm

J.P. Morgan is proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine as they celebrate over 200 years in our community, delivering world class research and compassionate, patient-centered care across Maryland. UMSOM is a leader in medical innovation, and is a vital institution in our community. During these difficult times it is even more important for us to support their Gala and UMSOM’s continued excellence.

—JP Morgan

“I have had the opportunity to work closely with UMSOM for a number of years and have found its contributions to healthcare in general and research in particular to be world class—on a level that is literally life-saving.”

—Norman Augustine, BOV Member

“We at Gordon Feinblatt LLC recognize and applaud the great achievements attained by the University of Maryland School of Medicine in medical care, population health, and innovations in all aspects of life sciences and technology. The School of Medicine is a vital resource to our State and to the world at large; support of the School of Medicine must be our absolute priority.

—Abba David Poliakoff, Member of the Firm
On behalf of the Sisters of Mercy, physicians, nurses, and staff of Mercy Medical Center, we are proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine Gala. Maintaining our involvement in the education of physicians and other healthcare professionals is a key priority that is deeply embedded within Mercy’s mission and values. As a teaching hospital, we are grateful for our special relationship with the University of Maryland which has withstood the test of time for nearly a century and has greatly benefited both institutions and the communities we serve together.

—David N. Maine, M.D., President & CEO of Mercy Health Services

During these unprecedented times, Exelon and BGE are proud to support the School of Medicine and help provide scholarships for women and people of color. Our support of the nation’s fifth oldest medical school spans many years, and is more important now than ever before, as the medical profession works to combat the COVID-19 pandemic.”

—Calvin Butler, SEVP, Exelon & CEO, Exelon Utilities
—Carim Khouzami, CEO, BGE

“The University System of Maryland Foundation is proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine Gala. We appreciate all that the School of Medicine does for the state of Maryland through their world class research, patient-centered care, excellent education programs, and more. We are also thankful to the School of Medicine for their tireless efforts to research and treat COVID-19.”

—USM Foundations

“We are proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine, as they continue to drive innovation, deliver compassionate care, and prepare students for the promise of a brighter future.”

—John Kelly, President & Chief Innovation Strategy Officer

“The reason why I give to the University of Maryland School of Medicine can be summed up by this quote from Winston Churchill, ‘We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.’”

—Carolyn Frenkil, SOM Board Member

“We are proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine, as they continue to drive innovation, deliver compassionate care, and prepare students for the promise of a brighter future.”

—John Kelly, President & Chief Innovation Strategy Officer

“On behalf of the Sisters of Mercy, physicians, nurses, and staff of Mercy Medical Center, we are proud to support the University of Maryland School of Medicine Gala. Maintaining our involvement in the education of physicians and other healthcare professionals is a key priority that is deeply embedded within Mercy’s mission and values. As a teaching hospital, we are grateful for our special relationship with the University of Maryland which has withstood the test of time for nearly a century and has greatly benefited both institutions and the communities we serve together.”

—David N. Maine, M.D., President & CEO of Mercy Health Services