MPRC ART EXHIBITION AND AUCTION

Is your community art engaged?

The Annual MPRC Art Exhibition and Auction seeks to engage the mental health community with art optimism and art inclusion by allowing clients and advocates a venue through which to share their art and experience!

About

Participants can lend artwork for display or donate artwork for auction. All forms of art and performances are welcome and all proceeds benefit NAMIWalks and their effort to give back to the greater mental health community.

You Can Help!

As leaders in your communities, there are multiple ways you can participate and color your community art engaged.

- Teach art as therapy or symptom management
- Hold an art workshop
- Hold a regular art group
- Encourage your clients to lend or donate art
- Organize a trip to the Art Exhibition to share the expression and experiences that connect us
