

FACULTY APPOINTMENT INFORMATION SHEET (FAIS)

| Choose one: Appointer's Name: Appointer's Department: Rank and Title: Geographic Full-time?  A Term of Appointment B Basis of Appointment  C Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the School:  a. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here- contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (at through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointer's Department Chairperson or Designee  Page and Center Institute Director or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   |   |  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
|--|---|--|-----------------|--------------------------------|--------------|-----------------|--|
| A Term of Appointment  Rank and Title:  Geographic Full-time?  A Term of Appointment  B. Basis of Appointment/ Employment:  C. Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  b. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C-1.b. or C-1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved: |   | Choose one:  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Rank and Title:  Geographic Full-time?  A. Term of Appointment  B. Basis of Appointment   10  B. Basis of Appointment   Employment:  | 1   | Appointee's Name:  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Geographic Full-lime?  A. Term of Appointment  B. Basis of Appointment Employment:  C. Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  Salary sensurits this column  C. Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the School:  a. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:             | Appoir  | ntee's Department:   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| A. Term of Appointment  B. Basis of Appointment/ Employment:  C. Salary Information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the School:  a. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   | Rank and Title:   |  |                 | Tenure status:                 |              |                 |  |
| B. Basis of Appointment/ Employment:   | Ged   | ographic Full-time?  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| B. Basis of Appointment/ Employment: % effort, compensated for months per year  C. Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the School:  a. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   | A. Te  | rm of Appointment  |                 | to                             |              |                 |  |
| C. Salary information for first fiscal year of appointment term:  1. Compensation payable by the School:  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  OAA only below line  Approved:   | • •   |  |                 | % effort, com                  | pensated for | months per year |  |
| 1. Compensation payable by the School:  a. From its resources  b. From the faculty practice plan  c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here-contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   |   |  |                 | Descri                         |              |                 |  |
| c. From income under grants, contract, or intra-agency agreements  2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here- contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  OAA only below line  |   | Compensation payable by  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| 2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan  3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here- contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   |   |  | b.              | From the faculty practice plan |              |                 |  |
| 3. Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school  4. Other (explain here- contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)  Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)  D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   |   |  | C.              |                                | DF           |                 |  |
| D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:  | 2.  | 2. Compensation payable by the faculty practice plan   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.  E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:  | 3.  | Compensation payable by other institutions pursuant to agreement with the school   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| <ul> <li>D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.</li> <li>E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.</li> <li>F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.</li> <li>G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:</li> <li>Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:</li> </ul>  | 4.  | Other (explain here- contact OAA before placing salary component in this category)   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| <ul> <li>D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy.</li> <li>E. Salary may be reduced pursuant to University policy in the event of reduction in State appropriations or in other income from which compensation may be paid.</li> <li>F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.</li> <li>G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:</li> <li>Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:</li> </ul>  | Total Approved Salary (1 through 4)   |  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty practice plan organization.  G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued, but unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:  | D. The salary funding sources and the amounts and proportions of salary payable from specific sources, as stated in C, are subject to change by the School as of the beginning of its fiscal years (July 1). In addition, salary is subject to change in accordance with University policy. |  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| But unused, annual leave for which the Appointee may be compensated upon separation from employment is:  Recommended:  Department Chairperson or Designee  Date  Recommended:  Program/ Center/ Institute Director or Designee  Date  OAA only below line  Approved:   | F   | which compensation may be paid.  F. The School is not responsible for payment of compensation listed in C which is payable by other institutions or by a faculty |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Department Chairperson or Designee  Recommended:  Program/ Center/ Institute Director or Designee  OAA only below line  Approved:  | G. If Appointee is supported in whole or in part by income under C.1.b. or C.1.c., the maximum number of hours accrued,   |  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Recommended:  Program/ Center/ Institute Director or Designee  OAA only below line  Approved:  |   | Recommended:   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Program/ Center/ Institute Director or Designee  OAA only below line  Approved:  |   | Department C   | hairperson o    | or Designee                    | Date         |                 |  |
| OAA only below line  Approved:   |   | Recommended:   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Approved:  |   | Program/ Cen   | nter/ Institute | Director or Designee           | Date         |                 |  |
|  |   | OAA only below line  |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
|  |   | Approved   |                 |                                |              |                 |  |
| Dealt of Designee  |   | Dean or Design   | gnee            |                                | Date         |                 |  |

Date