SELF-REPORTED NEWS from the SCHOOL OF MEDICINE COMMUNITY

Presentations, Events, Lectures & Workshops

Kudos to our colleagues who are experts in their fields and give their all to represent the School of Medicine!

► The Department of Emergency Medicine held its 6th annual Emergency Cardiology Symposium on March 24, 2021, with nearly 3,000 people from 86 countries registering to attend. Amal Mattu, MD, Professor, Department of Emergency Medicine, directed the symposium and Leen Alblaihed, MBBS, MHA, Adjunct Instructor, Department of Emergency Medicine, lectured on "COVID-Related Dysrhythmias."

Miriam Laufer, MD, Professor, Department of Pediatrics, presented "Malaria in School-Aged Children: The Missing Middle" at the Luminary in Global Health as a speaker in the St. Jude's-Pediatric Infectious Diseases Society Annual Meeting on March 6, 2021.

Benjamin Lawner, DO, MS, EMT-P, Assistant Professor, Department of Emergency Medicine, lectured on "EMS [Emergency Medical Services] Trauma Management" at the Trauma Fundamentals Virtual Conference 2021, which was conducted by Emergency Medicine Reviews and Perspectives on April 14, 2021.

Kathleen Neuzil, MD, MPH, FIDSA, the Myron M. Levine, MD, DTPH Professor in Vaccinology, and Director, Center for Vaccine Development and Global Health, was a panelist for the Chancellor's Lecture Series "Vanderbilt in the Vanguard: The Decades-long Journey to a Coronavirus Vaccine" on March 23, 2021. She also was a guest panelist at the CR Forum Industry Roundtable on "COVID-19" on April 1, 2021.

Gary Plotnick, MD, Professor Emeritus, and Michael Fisher, MD, Professor, both from the Department of Medicine, hosted the 3rd annual Endowed Lecture at Medical Grand Rounds on April 21, 2021. The event's featured speaker was Robert J. Myerburg, MD, Professor of Medicine and Physiology at the Miller School of Medicine, University of Miami, whose lecture was entitled, "Insights into the Diagnosis and Management of the Inherited Channelopathies."

Emerson Wickwire, PhD, Associate Professor, Departments of Psychiatry and Medicine, presented an invited lecture at the International Sleep Science and Technology Association Annual Meeting. The title of the presentation was "Tele-sleep and COVID-19."

Honors & Awards

Congratulations to the following who have received honors!

Sheryl Arambula, PhD, Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Pharmacology, was selected by the Society for Neuroscience (SfN) as a 2021 Early Career Policy Ambassador and recently attended SfN's Capitol Hill Day, where she met with legislators to advocate for biomedical research funding and policies that support science.

Seemant Chaturvedi, MD, the Stewart J. Greenebaum Endowed Professor of Stroke Neurology, received the Association of Indian Neurologists in America's (AINA) Lifetime Achievement award. Dr. Chaturvedi served as AINA President from 2017-2019 and is the first stroke neurologist to receive this award. The award was presented in a ceremony on April 18, 2021 and was sponsored by the American Brain Foundation.

It honors active, long-term members (25 or more years) who have demonstrated one or more of the following: a research career of recognized accomplishment in the field of immunology; exceptional leadership to the immunology community at a national or international level in academia, nonprofits, or societies, industry, or government; notable distinction as an educator."

Justine Yu became the first MD-PhD student to earn her PhD in Bioengineering at the University of Maryland College Park. She successfully defended her thesis: "A Nanocomposite Hydrogel for SDF-1 α Delivery and Modulation of Phenotype for Skin Tissue Regeneration" on April 6, 2021. On July 1, 2021, Justine will return to medical school to complete her third and fourth years of medical school.

► The Microbiome Service Laboratory Team (MSL), Institute for Genome Sciences (IGS), was named a UMB Champions of Excellence on March 29, 2021. The laboratory team was recognized for its work to transform a genomics lab into a large-scale COVID-19 testing platform. IGS collaborated with University of Maryland Pathology Associates, UMB, the State of Maryland, and the City of Baltimore on the project. Appointments

We applaud our colleagues on their recent appointments!

Steven Czinn, MD, the Drs. Rouben and Violet Jiji Endowed Professor of Pediatrics and Chair, Department of Pediatrics, was appointed to the Trauma Informed Care Task Force. The task force is charged with guiding the implementation of legislation and providing oversight, guidance, and consultation to help Baltimore become a trauma-responsive city. Members serve for four years. The task force was legislated through the Elijah Cummings Healing City Act, which was sponsored by council member Zeke Cohen and mandated the training of Baltimore's agency leadership and employees in
