CONNECT FOR IMMIGRANTS

This event is intended for anyone who is interested in learning about resources available to immigrants in Maryland, becoming a volunteer, and/or connecting with fantastic organizations that serve immigrants.

The agenda includes:

4:00pm-5:00pm - Presentation: Immigration and Immigrant Rights 101 –what do you need to know about the current landscape?

5:00pm-6:00pm - Networking Event: Meet organizations that serve immigrants and need your help!

6:00pm-7:00pm - Breakouts on Hot Topics
Topics cover: Immigration Enforcement, Helping Victims of Crime & Trafficking, Health and Welfare, Immigration and Immigrant Rights

MIRC'S mission is to coordinate and maximize existing resources in order to increase the availability and quality of pro bono and low-cost legal representation to low-income immigrants; to educate the community on immigration matters; and to advocate on behalf of Maryland immigrants. MIRC believes that Maryland is stronger when our communities uphold the dignity and value of each individual.
