

Community Health

Worker Virtual Training

Next Training: March 9 – April 10, 2026

MDH Accredited Training Program: No. 004-2020-G

What is a Community Health Worker?

CHWs are frontline public health workers who are trusted members of the communities they serve.

CHWs are known for having deep roots in their communities. They live, work and play in the same place.

- Advocate
- Peer Worker
- Navigator
- Outreach Worker
- Community Educator

Who can become a CHW?

- Must be 18 or older
- Have a High School Diploma or GED

Funding Opportunity

MD ETPL approved, you may be eligible for financial assistance through your local investment board.

<https://www.uswib.org/>

LOWER SHORE
WORKFORCE ALLIANCE

<https://lswa.org/>

LEAD ADVANCE INNOVATE
SUSQUEHANNA WORKFORCE NETWORK

<https://www.swnetwork.org/jobseeker/>

CHW Training Requirements

- 100 classroom learning hours
- 40 hours field experience practicum
- $1,400 registration fee per participant
- If self-paying and requesting a payment plan, a $100 deposit is required.
- A Gmail address is required.
- Have reliable access to a computer & internet

Virtual Classes

Monday, Tuesday, & Wednesday
9AM-12PM

With Friday Self-paced sessions

Register by March 2nd, 2026

Scan the QR code to register

<https://forms.gle/L3hm4NcZafmHHGaBA>